Indianapolis Boy Floors Opponent by Lucky Punch in Eighth Round.

(Special to The Evening World,)
INDIANAPOLIS, April 25. — Young
Saylor of Indianapolis and Joe Mandet of New Orleans battled ten rounds at the Auditorium, the unanimous newspaper decision going to the Southerner. In the first part of the fight Saylor was mostly on the defensive, Mandot doing the leading. Young Saylor was credited with the only knockdown in the eighth round, when he floored Mandot with a hard right to the back of the head as the latter ducked. Mandat was up in a flash and finished the round strong.

Joe was fast in his dodging and blocking. He also fought well in the clinches, which is regarded as Saylor's strongest point. Mandot also used a straight left jab effectively, but his right hooks were well blocked by Saylor. Mandot had a good defense for Saylor's "loop" punch, and was stronger of the pair at the finish.
